

CATEGORY 1 COMMUNICABLE DISEASES

Aeromonas	measles
amoebiasis	meningitis of bacterial or viral origin anthrax	meningoccal infections botulism	mumps
brucellosis	paratyphoid campylobacteriosis	parvovirus B 19 chickenpox	pertussis
Chlamydia pneumoniae	plague cholera	poliomyelitis cryptosporidiosis	psittacosis diphtheria	Q fever encephalitis	rabies
food poisoning of animal, bacterial, viral or chemical origin, not including	relapsing fever salmonellosis or shigellosis	Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever Haemophilus influenza b invasive disease	rubella hantavirus	congenital rubella syndrome hepatitis A	salmonellosis, excluding typhoid and influenza	paratyphoid
invasive streptococcal disease	shigellosis Kawasaki disease	tetanus legionellosis	toxigenic staphylococcal disease leptospirosis	toxoplasmosis leprosy	trichinosis
listeriosis	tularemia
Lyme disease	typhoid
Malaria	unspecified viral hepatitis verotoxigenic Escherichia coli infections viral haemorrhagic fever yellow fever
	Yersinia enterocolitica.

Reference:      Sections 85, 87, 141, 175, 178, 190, 231 Education Act
                  The School Division Administration Regulations 45, 29
                  Public Health Act