

The purpose of the Northwest School Division's social media pages are to facilitate an ongoing dialogue on education issues. We encourage your comments; your ideas and concerns are important to ensure that a broad range of community members are active and informed participants in the discussion. Northwest School Division reserves the right to modify this policy at any time and expressly reserves the right to remove comments from its pages.

Northwest School Division retains the right to remove or not remove comments. In addition, we expect that participants will treat each other, as well as our division, our employees, and our students, with respect. Comments may be removed if they fall into the following categories:

- contain vulgar or abusive language, personal attacks of any kind, or offensive terms that target specific ethnic, racial or minority groups
- any type of marketing or advertising for commercial purposes, or the promotion of services or products (non-commercial links that are relevant to the blog post or comment are acceptable)
- are clearly "off topic," or "spam"
- make unsupported accusations
- reference employees or students by name.

We won't edit comments to remove objectionable content, so please ensure that your comments contain none of the above.

To protect your own privacy and the privacy of others, please do not include personally identifiable information, such as name, addresses, phone numbers or email addresses in the body of your comment. If you do voluntarily include your name in a comment, which we generally do not recommend, that comment may or may not be removed. In no circumstances will comments be allowed to remain that contain addresses, email addresses, phone numbers, or similar personally identifiable information.

Questions you post for Northwest School Division may not be answered here. If you have a question for us, please contact 306-236-5614 or email kaitlin.harman@nwsd.ca.
